HARLEM RACING.

Harlem racing yesterday was chiefly of interest because of the influx of new material in horseflesh. Clay & Woodford's colors were seen for the first time in Chicago this year on Janie Clay in the second race, and several strange owners had their names upon the program. Two-year-old fillies are as thick hereabouts as were oaks in the great Irish forest and twenty-three of them raced in the first two events of the day. Nine more two-year-olds contested the fourth race, while five other ho ses of like age essayed to win the closing rattle of the day. The weather was intolerably hot. Harlem has been greatly handicapped by the elements the past two weeks as when there has been lack of streams of water on the track, there has been altogether too much of the blistering rays of the dog day sun. That the public patronizes the sport under such unfavorable conditions speaks volumes for the perpetuity of racing. Mr. John Brenock, who has lived in Chicago since 1851, said: "I have never seen so long continued a spell of hot weather at this season of the year."

The first race Heart Breaker, Thought So and Alice B opened equal favorites at 3 to 1. The owner of the latter said "If I should start a mule he would be favorite, notwithstanding the fact that my stable has not scored a victory in over a month." Charley Carmichael, who started Miss Day, expressed himself to the effect that bar the favorites nothing else was worth three dollars. Alice B jumped skyward while Heart Breaker, James Whitten's filly by Renown out of Oak Grove Rose, displaced Thought So and ruled the favorite at 13 to 5. Pococanto was backed. Little Rosey acted badly and ran her race at the post. Cora Havill II and Money Back showed in front at the two breakaways while Heart Breaker would not leave the post. When the flag fell the favorite was off in the rear and never made up any ground, which was a sad ending to the happy dream of a sharpshooter who had caught Sam May out of line to the tune of $5 each way Heart Breaker at 15 and 6. Etta P ran out in front and opened a gap on Cora Havill II. In the front bunch ran Little Rosey, Alice B. and Lady Weight. Etta P., who had bolted a previous start as she turned into the homestretch, ran true enough, but was caught and passed by Cora Havill II. at the betting ring, the pair running home one-two far ahead of Alice B., who got the third money away from Rosavannah in a drive. Thought So and Pella B. were "there or thereabouts."

Flirtation, Queen's Pawn and Mendacious were the more prominent at the dozen breakaways marking the second race, but Janie Clay took a long run twice. Vogel, a full sister of Song Bird had never before faced the starter and seemed to dislike to break. Once, Jenkins was off Cousin Lettie to have a martingale fixed, and his filly broke quite a distance on several occasions. Kunja, Lillie Mark, Lecelia and Miss Dooley were quiet during all the ruction. The start was fairly good, Janie Clay taking the lead and opening a gap on Kunja, second. "Skeets," on the favorite, took it easy when he reached the last eighth, had no trouble in passing Janie Clay and winning easily. The owner of the winner said all along that Kunja could not lose. Miss Dooley came from the rear and beat Janie Clay for the place. Cousin Lettie, sixth into the home stretch, finished well up, as did Flirtation, who was third the first end of the journey. Queen's Pawn ran in company for three-eighths. Lillie Mark was fifth on the upper turn.

Amy Wade won as she pleased. She ran second to Bing Binger to the last eighth and then passed him in a jiffy. Sutton showed fourth at the half mile ground, and, improving gradually, beat Bing Binger for place. The latter was tagged by Tranby. Parole d'Or ran in third position for seven-eighths of a mile, then died away. The start was all right, but Everett got Elusive knocked about in going around the first turn, so that passing the quarter pole she was "absolutely," and so remained to the half, where she managed to get in front of one horse, Filibuster (backed from 200 down to 100 to 1 at the post). Elusive, running on the extreme outside and under the whip in the straight, managed to lead the bunch behind Tranby and ran a good race.

Approval got off flying to a straggling start, and although Streamer was first away the favorite went to the front in the first ten rods and thereafter was not headed. Assessor, off third, was quickly headed by Prince McClurg, who caught Streamer soon after the home stretch was made, but unable to stand the clip landed third, Streamer getting the place. Doremus was fourth and Assessor fifth. In running the first sixteenth Mr. Johnson threw his jockey, Nicholson, but the boy escaped injury.

The long distance race was the betting affair of the day. Of these seven starters all except Valid and Pete Kitchen were thought to have nearly equal chances, and the play was a general one. Off quickly to an excellent start, Roger B. led at the first quarter, attended by Croesus and Alvarado II. Passing the judges Alvarado II led by three lengths from Hosi, Collins and Roger B abreast, behind this platoon coming Croesus, three lengths better than Valid and Pete Kitchen, paired. Into the back stretch Alvarado II. still led, but Hosi soon went to him, and Rose, shooting his horse to the front, was not again headed and won the race in a walk. Pete Kitchen and Valid made up a great deal of ground up the back stretch, and the former was within striking distance on the upper turn, but soon shot his bolt. When passing the mile Alvarado II. dropped out and Roger B. took second place, and so finished. Croesus made his run at the last quarter, and there ran closely behind Roger B., but the road was too long, and Valid beat him for third money. Collins dropped out of the race on the back stretch and was beaten an eighth of a mile. Hosi was strongly supported, being backed from 8 down to 5 to 1.

Ostra was first at the first breakaway; at the second Abina ran away one half mile, but was stopped by Jenkins and ridden to the post. A straggling start found Ostra, Andes and Borden in the front rank. The first named soon took the lead and won hard ridden through the home stretch, lock-d with Canace the last eighth. Czarowitz was third into the straight and there finished, Canace coming from behind him. Borden and Andes finished close up, as did the favorite, Prince Harry. Horses not mentioned were never in the hunt.

Wash Norval, representing the Hawthorne track, will be at Harlem from 7 to 10 a. m. today to take entries for Monday's races over the Cicero course. Horsemen are reminded that acceptances in the Ontario Handicap are also due at this time.

Jack Kinney will not again be allowed to ride at Fort Erie. A message to this effect has reached the Harlem officials from W. O. Parmer. This gentleman says that Kinney was allowed to ride because of his statement that he had been reinstated by Col. Clark.

Badges now used at Harlem will be good for the meeting beginning September 19. H. J. Scoggan shipped last night to Newport. The entries for the succeeding day's races are now posted on the big "foreign book" black-board at the end of the betting ring.

There were eighteen regular and two field books.

Time, 24, 49, 1:02<sup>h</sup>. Winner—Blk. f. by Kingston—Post Maid. Post 10 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. It was a fierce drive for the place. Cora Havill II. galloped under a strong pull all the way. As the race was run she was the best of a bad lot. Etta P. had a lot of speed but was tiring badly at the end. Alice B. came strong under punishment and would have got the place in another stride. Rosavannah made up ground throughout. Thought So met with interference at the start and never showed any speed. Heart Breaker is well named. She seemed to shy as the barrier went up and would never extend herself. This filly was well played. Little Rosey acted badly at the post, was lucky in getting off and showed some speed.

Cora Havill II., place, 7 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Etta P., place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1; Alice B., show, 2 to 1.

8234 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. 2-year-olds. Maidens. Allowances. Purse $400; value to winner $360; $10 entrance; $111 to second; $49 to third.

Time, 24, 48, 1:01<sup>h</sup>. Winner—B. f. by Kehama—Brigazee. Post 23 minutes. Start poor. Won cleverly at the end after an early drive. The next three were hard at it. Kunja was the form of the race, her price a liberal one, and she won as she should have done. She seems to be a good filly and the delay at the post hurt her little or none. Miss Dooley is game. She was under punishment the last three furlongs and stood it like a lady. Janie Clay, on the strength of phenomenal work, was heavily played. The stay at the post evidently hurt her. She had great speed but tired badly at the end. Judging from this race the next maiden affair is probably at her mercy. Flirtation had bad luck in the race. Mendacious hardly ran her race. Neither did Lillie Mark. The latter was in a bad place at the start and could never get through.

Scratched—Nora C., 107; Rival Dare, 102.

Kunja, place, place, 4 to 5; Miss Dooley, place, 24 to 1; show, even; Janie Clay, show, 4 to 5.

8235 THIRD RACE—1-16 Miles. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 25, 50, 1:02, 1:04, 1:04, 1:04. Winner—Ch. f. 4, by Audrain The Wrath. Off at first break to a good start. Won hand ridden; second and third were driving to the limit. Amy Wade is in grand form now and judging from her last two races should have been favorite. She galloped in behind Bing Binger until the stretch was reached and when called upon responded nicely. Sutton ran a good race. He was properly handled and finished like a lion. He should be considered from now on. Bing Binger had fine speed and looked all over a winner on the far turn. He tired badly at the end though and was lucky to be third. Tranby met with slight interference on the stretch turn. It did not have any effect on his race, though. Elusive's race was a joke. Throw it out entirely. Everett dropped in behind the others on the first turn and seemed to be perfectly satisfied with last position all down the back stretch. Parole d'Or, well played by the St. Louis contingent showed speed, but could not last the route. Amy Wade, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Sutton, place, 7 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Bing Binger, show 2 to 1.

8236 FOURTH RACE—5-8 Mile. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Post 6 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second cleverly; third and fourth driving. Approval was perhaps the best. He was favored with a running start though and could hardly have lost with the send-off he got. Streamer showed quality. This colt has been off all summer but seems to be rounding to and may be hard to beat from now on. Prince McClurg, none too well ridden, did well. Doremus is a slow beginner. He was hampered and interfered with shortly after the start but came fast the last three furlongs. Nicholson on Mr. Johnson had a narrow escape. The horse stumbled and gave the boy a nasty fall, but he got out of the mixup unhurt. A rest would possibly do him good.

Approval, place, 3 to 5; Streamer, place, 2 to 1; show, even; Prince McClurg, show, even.

Time, 26:51, 1:17, 1:42, 1:56, 2:08, 2:35.

Winner—Ch. g. 3, by Pirate of Pezance—Mary Winnifred.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a gallop; second eased a trifle at the end; third and fourth driving hard. Hosi is a shifty little horse over a distance of ground. He galloped under a strong pull all the way and had a lot left at the end. Roger B. did his best. Rutter saw he had no chance to beat Hosi in the stretch and eased his horse up. Valid is game over a distance of ground. He got third place through sheer gameness. Croesus is a plodder. He ran every quarter about alike. Pete Kitchen wants a heavy track to do his best. Alvarado II had a lot of speed, but stopped badly after going a mile. Collins was lame in his preliminary and in no condition to race.

Scratched—Dorothy III, 109.

Hosi, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Roger B., place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Valid, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 24, 49, 1:03, 1:18.

Winner—B. f, by Guarantee—Tremola.
Post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won in a hard drive. Jim Lick should have won. He bore in on Merode and Bridal Tour in the last furlong and Frost lost by trying to keep him straight. Bridal Tour was badly cut off near the finish, but it cut no figure in the result. Merode is a slow beginner. The last three at the start were practically left.

Scratched—Click, 98; Kittie Regent, 95.
Corrected weights—Curio, 98.
